

Cleaning & Maintenance

During the daily use of WPC decking, that will have stains or debris left on the surface, In order to minimize the contamination and damage to the decking surface, which need to take notices as following to take the cleaning and maintenance accordingly.

- First to check whether there is a sharp or hard matters on the floor, be sure to remove the matters in time, in order to avoid hurting people or damage to the decking.
Otherwise, Using the water-gun to remove the sands on the decking.
- It's not allowed to use metal spatula and brush to clean up debris and remove snow in case of damage to the products.
- Can't use metal products knocking on WPC decking, also don't use unprofessional equipment to removing the decking.
- Wet and moist environment condition will favorable to the growth of mold, so should often clean up the debris on the decking surface, and keep dry to avoid the growth of mold.
- Check the drainage system ordinary in case of water accumulation. Don't stack things on damp place of decking, and paying more attention of ventilation and drainage especially to the corner and damp location.
- During the using process, WPC decking should be far away from fire, heat, server environment conditions. Such as the burning oven also need sure to keep enough distance away the decking. Be away from oil and corrosive chemicals.
- Do not use a magnifying glass or similar magnifying glass tools for the decking.
- Install the WPC decking as far as the completion of the decoration of building. Otherwise decking surface easily infected with oil, scratches, dust or sharp objects during the decoration around. Unless to laying protective layer to the decking until the completion of all construction.
- Must keep cleaning of oil, food, sauces, beverage and other besmirch on time, especially the oil.
- Please cleaning the decking surface according to the same sanding direction if the stain accumulated long time. In order to remove the stains can use cleaning cloth scrubbing several times.
- It's strictly prohibited to use strong acid, alkali and other corrosive liquid detergent to clean the decking.
- During cleaning process please wear protective gloves except water flushing is enough.

Cleaning method for different stains

Oily stains

Please immediately wipe the oil with a cloth or tissue to once appeared, which can absorb most of the oil and then use soft brush and hot soapy water to clean the decking surface.

If the oily food fall on the decking and left a slight mark, you can use the sanded paper to sand the oil mark , then cleaning with water.

Two kinds of food residue (Oily & Non-Oily)

If decking surface had oily food residue(such like soup,lipids, etc), should immediately remove it with cloth and then cleaning with soft brush and hot soapy water , also can use detergent if it's necessary. Ordinary non-oily food residue(fruit skin, core etc), can just clean with broom and then use water to wash.

Mold

Generally using brush and laundry detergent to clean the mold surface, or using bleach.

Drinks and Ink

Please wipe the drinks or ink with a cloth or tissue to once appeared, which can absorb most of the moisture and then use soft brush and hot soapy water to clean the decking surface.

And if the stain is dry, you can use the sanded paper to sand the mark, then cleaning with water.

Ice and Snow

Use calcium chloride or mineral salt to melt the snow and ice on the WPC decking surface, and wash with soft brush and soapy water.

Dyeing ,soil and dirt

Cleaning with laundry detergent and soft brush, also can using oil detergent when it's necessary. But it's prohibited to use strong acid,strong alkali, and corrosive detergent to clean the decking.

Regular cleaning tools and products

1. Cleaning Cloth
2. Bucket/Water-gun
3. Soft brush
4. Soap, detergent, washing powder etc.
5. Calcium chloride, mineral salt(for snow)
6. Household protective gloves